Nicholas Voegele app't.

appeal.

Again at this day come the parties by their Attorneys, and this cause coming on to be heard on motion made by Defendant's Attorney—at a former day of this term for a new Trial of this cause, the court heard argument of counsel, and being advised in the premises. It is ordered that said motion be denied, to which decision of the court in denying said motion for a new trial, the Defendant by Attorney at the time excepted, and prays an appeal to the supreme court of the State of Illinois, which is granted by the court upon Defendant's entering into Bond within thirty days from this date in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars with Garritt Crownover as security.

Copy of Appeal Bond filed Nov. 17th 1858.

Know all men by these presents that we Nicholas Voegele and Garritt Crownover are held and firmly bound unto John Rimmer in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars lawful money, for the payment of which well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. In Testimony whereof we have ~~hereto~~ set our hands and seals this 16th day of November A.D. 1858.

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bounden Nicholas Voegele has prayed an appeal from the circuit court of Madison County Illinois to the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois in a certain cause lately pending in said ~~court~~ ^{circuit} court and finally determined in said court at the October Term thereof A.D. 1858, in which said cause said John Rimmer was plaintiff and said Nicholas Voegele was

Defendant, said suit, was pending in said Court on an appeal from a Justice Court. Now if the above bounden Nicholas Voegele shall and do pay the judgment, costs interest, and Damages in case the judgment shall be affirmed, and shall duly prosecute his said appeal; then this obligation shall be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue,

Nicholas Vegele
Garrith Crownover

State of Illinois,
Madison County, I, Tho^s. Q. Springer Clerk of the Circuit Court within and for the County and State aforesaid Certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of Final order and judgment of said Court, in the above entitled cause at the October Term thereof A. D. 1858, and also of the Appeal Bond filed in said cause, as truly and correctly as the same now remain of Record and on file in said Court.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto signed my name and affixed the seal of said Court at Edwardsville this 10th day of November, A. D. 1859,
