John Morrison et al v Wheel from Roseville, Ca
Classes P. Silverburgh

The first error assigned is that the Court erred in overruling the motion of the defendants to strike from the files the declaration & bond.

In this assignment of errors there are several answers. First, the motions, answers are no part of the record, and the Court could judicially know what they were 13 Cum 253 5 Greene's Iowa Rep 447 = 2 Black 402 1 Black 429

2<sup>d</sup> The motion was in regard to the pleadings and addressed to the discretion of the Court & the order thereon was merely interlocutory for even if the Court had thought the declaration insufficient the Court would have given leave to amend = again the order is merely interlocutory & error cannot be assigned upon it =

3<sup>d</sup> The remedy ~~by~~ was by plea in abatement of the declaration did not pursue the process 11 Ill 573 Held H Hubbard 3 Gil 74 Brink's case H Brown But if the affidavit had been defective on the declaration either was amendable = and Besides; - The motion was properly overruled as the declaration was entirely sufficient even if the record presents the question it would not be proper to dismiss a suit or strike from the files a declaration where an amendment might obviate the defect = there was no variance - 1 Sand Sup Ct Rep 268 = 11 Ill 573 & Miller = 13 Ill - 219 57 R 78 = 5 57 R 33 = 2 5 Cum 74 = Warr H Mc Gown =

The copies of it stood as a bar more would require no affidavit to support it = the same having been signed by the declarator & the Court are null & void whether it comes before with the affidavit or not = 5 Cum 74 = Warr H Mc Gown =

II - To the 5<sup>d</sup> assignment of errors, we reply that it was a matter addressed to the discretion to the Court 2 Gil 259 Bunker v Eastman 13 Cum Bunker Ingraham 2 Cum 74 Warr H Mc Gown =

III The 4th 5th assignment of errors requires no answer -

IV The 6th assignment of errors is answered by saying that the instructions copied into the record are no part of the record; - and this Court cannot see that any instructions were asked for or given unless the bill of exceptions shows that exceptions were made at the time of giving the instructions - 11 Wis 402, 8 How U.S. 263 =

211936-12 V The 7th assignment is predicated on the former errors & of course falls with them

VI In the 8th assignment of errors we reply that after verdict a variance between the proceeds and declaration or other paper is no ground for error. The remedy is by plea in abatement - Boese 298 Prince & Sims

VII The 9th & 10th assignments of error are of the same character as the 8th & the same answer will apply to them -

VIII There is no bill of exceptions in this case and no motion for a new trial & there is nothing in the record on which to predicate an assignment of errors 11 Mis. 214 Kennedy & Merry -

Higgins & Shotton
Attys for Defs
in error

Again the deponent admitted the debt, & the instructions of course would not have been given as the case was admitted by the deponent -

To the additional errors assigned - We reply that there was a seal to the summons - as appears from the record - 3 Gill & Johns 234 - 11 Leigh Virginia Rep 2, 571 Park & Hewlett = 2 Seng & Parole 2, 584 - 5 Ham. Misp. 152 Briggs & The State = 21 Pick 417 = Mill Dem Houndly & Novey = The deponent also appeared -

The first count of the declaration is certainly good, it sets out a ~~common count~~ common money bond, & it does not show that there is any condition annexed thereto. Gony & Campbell deal to Gil and the court can not intend that there is a condition -

The second count is good - it sets out the condition in habe corpus & alleges a breach in Whit pl 506 = ex post = The recitals in the bond show the recovery of the judgment & the deponent admits the affirmance by the Supreme Court
