E. Peck Esq.

Sir:

When you saw me last, I expected to be in your office again, in a week or ten days, but circumstances not then foreseen have hitherto prevented me; and possibly may prevent me, during the ~~next~~ session from coming down. I however send you the $100 scrip, which is worth now nearly $142, but you shall have it at the agreed price. Please send me a copy of the decision of the court in the case of myself vs. Foster & Blumh, ^{and an execution for costs,} and pay yourself for said copy; and the costs in the case of myself vs. Centenius & Griswold, and the balance let go on other costs I owe you, and send by the bearer, an account showing on what I apply it; and what will still be due (if any thing). Also please send me the per bill against Hixley Metcalfe & Co.

Yours &c.

C. Pollock
