And now comes the Appellant G. C. Molineux Atty and says that the Courts err'd in rendering judgments in this to wit.

- 1st The Court err'd in permitting the promissory notes in the first & second Courts by the plaintiff's declaration mentioned to be given in evidence under the Commonwealth Courts after rejecting them under the special Courts
- 2^d The Court err'd in permitting the notes to be given in evidence under the Commonwealth Courts. There being no ~~Court~~ account joined with the declaration - except a copy of said notes & assignments
- 3 The Court err'd in overruling a motion for a new trial who have been summoned in a suit of trespass on the law on premises. For that remains the said defendants and James Hutchins and one William H. Combs have deceased plaintiff to wit. On the first day of June in the year A.D.

1846 at Rockford to wit in the County of Mc Henry in the State of Illinois made their between promising note in writing bearing date the day and year aforesaid and then and there they promised by ^{the name and style of the McHenry County Banking Company} to pay on demand to James Hutchins of the sum of one thousand and ~~one~~ ^{one} hundred and eleven $1100 dollars worth and then and there delivered the said promising note to the said James Hutchins and the said plaintiff in fact saith that after the making of said note and before the payment of the sum of money therein mentioned died leaving his last will and by which said last will and testament so appointed Only W. Hutchins Executor and Henry Petrie Executor of said last will and testament of said James Hutchins deceased and letter testamentary were duly issued by the Court of Probate in and by the County of M'Henry advised on or about the seventh day of September A.D. eighteen hundred and forty eight to the said Henry Petrie and Only W. Hutchins and they gave them said their appointed by said Court Executor & Executrix of the estate of said James Hutchins deceased and the said County Hutchins Executor and Henry Petrie Plaintiff of the estate of James Hutchins deceased is such Executor & Executrix before said the sum of Money in said note mentioned was paid to him on the day and year last advised indorsed and delivered the said note to the plaintiff who then and then became the legal owner and before of said note by means whereof and by force of the Statute in such case made and provided the said defendants then and then became liable to pay to the said plaintiff the said sum of money in the said summing note specified and being so liable the said defendants in consideration thereof afftained to him on the day and year last advised at the County of M'Henry advised the said defendants afftained and then and then promised to pay the said plaintiff the said sum of money in said summing note specified according to the true and effect thereof.

For that whereas, the said defendants and one James Hutchins and one William F. Combs have agreed hereof to him on the fifteenth day of January A.D. eighteen hundred and forty seven at Woodstock to him on the County of M'Henry in the State of Illinois by the name and style of the McHenry County Hunting Company made their obligation promising note in writing bearing date the day and year aforesaid and then and then by the name and style of the McHenry County Hunting Company promising to pay one day after date for due to James Hutchins the sum of one hundred and two & 33/100 dollars with interest and then and then aforesaid the said promise note

in fact paid that after the making of said note and before the payment of the sum of money therein mentioned said James Hutchins died leaving his last will and testament in writing which last will and testament by appointment County of McHenry executed and Henry Peter Executive the testator and testaments of said James Hutchins deceased and letters testamentary were duly issued by the Court of Probate in and for the County of McHenry aforesaid on or about the twentieth day of September A.D. eighteen hundred and forty eight to the said Henry Peter and Emily Hutchins and they now then and then appointed by said Probate Court Executive of Executing of the goods and estate of said James Hutchins deceased and the said Emily Hutchins Executing and Henry Peter Executive of the estate of James Hutchins deceased as such Executive & Executive before the said sum in said note was paid him. On the day and year last aforesaid executed and delivering the said note to the plaintiff who then and then became the legal owner and holder of said note by means whereof and by the force of the statute in such case made and provided the said defendants then and then became liable to pay the said plaintiff the said sum of money in the said promise note specified and being so liably the said defendants in consideration thereof defourned to me on the day and year last aforesaid at the County of McHenry aforesaid the said defoulants respectively and then and there promised to pay the said plaintiff the said sum of money and further promising note sufficient according to the time and effect thereof

And whereas also the said defendants and one James Hutchins and one William J. Combs on the first day of March A.D.
Eighty six hundred and fifty one was indebted to the said plaintiff on the sum of four hundred dollars to an account then stated between them and whereas the said defendants promised to pay the said sum of money when they should thereafter be requested yet the said defendants have responded to their promises and have not nor hath either of them paid any of said money or any part thereof to the plaintiff summing up to four hundred dollars and therefrom he being sume.

Henry Petrie et al By it remembered that on this day of September A.D.

1857 the above entitled cause came on to be heard before the Hon J G Wilson Judge of the 13th Judicial Court a Jury being impanelled by the parties and the cause submitted to the court for trial wherein the plaintiff introduced two promissory notes with the endorsements theron in evidence to the introduction of which the defendants by their counsel objection was made that Henry Petrie one of the assigns of the notes was not executor of of the last will and testament at the time he made said endorsements on said notes wherein the defendants introduced the following testimony Phineas W. Plott who testified that the endorsements were made on said notes but a short time previous to the commencement of this suit and after the 29th day of November A.D. 1850. The defendant thereby and said in evidence the following order of the Probate Court of the County of McHenry.

State of Illinois
McHenry County Special Term of the Probate Court held November 29th 1849 Present S. Aslyn P. D. P.

In hearing the petition to hear and determine the matter why the letters of Executanship in the estate of James Hutchins which should not be recorded Nov 2nd past until certified Henry Petrie did not appear to show cause why his letters of Administrationship should not be recorded. It is ordered by the Court that in consequence of the said Henry Petrie total neglect to make his return as the said Administratrix and refusing to obey the order or Citation to appear and show cause for so neglecting to obey said order it is ordered by the Court that the letters testamentary on the part of Henry Petrie be recorded.

Sunday Aslyn P.P. which was all the evidence offered.

Whereupon the Court rejected said notes as evidence under the two first Counts in plaintiffs declaration.

After which the plaintiff offered said notes in evidence under the remaining Count of said declaration to the introduction of which the defendant by his Counsel objected which objections were overruled by the Court and the notes received in evidence which was all the evidence offered.
