sole Judge of the Cook County Court of Common Pleas within and for the County and State aforesaid at a Special Term of said Cook County Court of Common Plead on the first Tuesday being the fourth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty nine due notice of the time and place of holding said term of Court, having been printed and published in the "Daily Democrat" the Corporation Newspaper of the City of Chicago, said Notice having been printed and published Twenty days previous to the holding of said Court in accordance with the Statute in such case made and provided, and in pursuance of an Order made by the Judge of said Court on the Thirteenth day of December A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight

Present Hon: John M. Wilson . . . Judge Carlos Haven . . . Prosecuting Attorney
John Gray . . . Sheriff Cook County

Attest

Walter Kimball Clerk.

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the twenty first day of January A. D. Eighteen hundred and fifty nine, the following among other, proceedings were had and entered of record in said Court to wit,

" Jonathan M. Staples &
Stephen A. Caldwell

(u)

Pennoyer S. Sherman P. Atto^t
Francis H. Kales . . .

This day come the said parties by their Attorneys, and by their agreement made here in open Court, this cause is submitted to the Court for trial without the intervention of a Jury, and the Court after hearing the allegations and proofs submitted by said parties, arguments of Counsel thereon, and being fully advised in the premises, finds the issue for the plaintiffs and assesses their damages herein to the sum of Two hundred and forty three dollars and Nineteen cents.

Therefore it is considered that said plaintiffs do have and recover of said Defendants their damages of Two hundred $ 243.19 and forty three dollars and Nineteen cents in sum as aforesaid assessed, together with their costs and charges by them in this behalf expended and have Execution therefor.

Whereupon said Defendants pray an Appeal to the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, which is granted on Condition that said Defendants file their Appeal Bond herein, within ten days in the sum of Three hundred and fifty dollars, with good and sufficient Sureties thereon, to be approved by this Court.

And thereupon on the twenty ninth day of January
A. D Eighteen hundred and fifty nine, the said Defendants accordingly filed in the Office of the Clerk of said Courts their Appeal Bond, in the words and figures following, to wit,

"Know all Men by these Presents That we Prisoner L. Sherman, Francis H. Kales and E. Anthony of Chicago in the County of Cook and State of Illinois are held and firmly bound unto Jonathan M. Staples and Stephen W.
Cadwell in the City and State of New York in the sum of Five hundred and fifty dollars lawful money of the United States to be paid to the said Staples & Cadwell their executors administrators or assigns for which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators firmly by these Presents.

Sealed with our Seals - Dated this 29th day of January
A. D. 1859.

The Condition of the above Obligation is such that whereas the said Jonathan M. Staples and Stephen W. Cadwell obtained a Judgment against the said Sherman & Kales for the sum of Two hundred and forty three dollars and Nineteen cents at the January Special Term of the Cook County Court of Common Pleas in the year 1859 from which said Judgment so obtained the said Sherman & Kales have appealed to the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois Now if the above bond is paid Sherman & Hale shall pay the said judgment and costs of suit and interest and costs of this Appeal in case the said judgment shall be affirmed by the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois then this obligation and all herein contained shall be null and void otherwise shall remain in full force and effect
