

DEATH OF JUDGE SMITH.

At a meeting of the Members of the Bar and officers of Court, held at the Court House in the City of Chicago, on Tuesday, May 6th, 1845, the Hon. Hugh T. Dickey was called to the Chair, and Charles H. Larrabee, appointed Secretary.

On motion of Col. Hamilton, a committee of five—consisting of Messrs. Hamilton, Morris, Arnold, Freer, Spring and S. Lisle Smith, was appointed to draft suitable resolutions expressive of feelings of this meeting in relation to the death of the Hon. Theophilus W. Smith.

S. Lisle Smith on behalf of the committee, presented the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the Bar of Cook county, have heard with deep grief of the deceased of HON. THEOPHILUS W. SMITH, late one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Illinois, and a member of this Bar.

Resolved, That the distinguished ability, the eminent legal attainments, and the long judicial services of the deceased, have rendered his name inseparably connected with the jurisprudence of our State.

Resolved, That the Bar of Cook county tender to the surviving relatives of the deceased, their sincere condolence with this afflicting dispensation of Providence, and as a testimonial of respect for his memory will proceed in a body to his funeral, and wear the usual bage of mourning.

Resolved, That the Cook county Court be requested, on motion, to enter the foregoing resolutions of record.

On motion of Mr. Arnold, Mr. S. Lisle Smith was appointed to present the above resolutions to the Court on Thursday morning next, and request that they be entered of record.

On motion, ordered that the Secretary forward a copy of the resolutions to each of the surviving relatives of the deceased.

On motion of Mr. Spring, a committee of arrangements, consisting of Messrs. Collins, Spring, Huntington, Manierne, and Scammon be appointed.

On motion, it was ordered that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Journals of the city.

On motion the meeting adjourned till half past 9 o'clock, on Wednesday morning.

HUGH T. DICKEY, Chairman,
CHA'S. H. LARRABEE, Secretary.
