H. B. Lucas

vs.

S. S. Farrington

71641  7

Harvey B. Lucas, plff in Error. (8)

S. S. Farrington, Defendant in Error, In the Supreme Court, State of Illinois, November Term, AD 1857, for the 1st Grand Division.

Came this day the appellant by Nelson & Johnson his attorneys, and say, that in the record and proceedings and and process aforesaid, there is manifest error, in this that the Circuit Court of Washington County, rendered a judgment as in said record set forth in favor of the ^{Defendant in error} ~~appellants~~, whereas, by the laws of the land the said judgment ought to have been in favor of the plaintiff in error, and this he is ready to verify, &c, and for assigning errors specially on the record as aforesaid the plaintiff in error avows that the said Circuit Court erred in this, 1st The court erred in overruling the motion to dismiss the suit for want of cost bond.
2^d The court erred in overruling the demurrer to the replication to plaintiffs plea in abatement. 3^d The court erred in rendering judgment by default for $72.55, part of declaration unanswered. 4th The court erred in overruling motion to discontinue suits after rendering judgment for the part unanswered as aforesaid. 5th The court erred in empannelling a jury to try said cause after the suit was discontinued in law, and rendering judgment for $186, and costs against plaintiff in error on the verdict of the jury.
6th The court erred in not specifying whether said judgment was for debt or damages.

or what portion of the claim of the defendant the said judgment was rendered for. 7th The court erred in rendering two judgments against the plaintiff in error, in one suit.

Whereupon the said plaintiff says that for the errors aforesaid, apparent in the record and proceedings aforesaid, the said judgment of the said circuit court of Washington county ought to be reversed

IN THE SUPREME COURT, STATE OF ILLINOIS.

For the 1st GRAND DIVISION,

November Term, 1857.

HARVEY B. LUCAS, Plaintiff in Error,

vs.

SAMUEL S. FARRINGTON, who sues as S. S. FARRINGTON, Defendant in Error.

Error to WASHINGTON.

ABSTRACT OF PLAINTIFF'S CASE.

PAGE 1 Debt by note in the Washington Circuit Court, brought by defendant in error against plaintiff in error.—Declaration in the usual form: amount of debt $372,55; damages $200.

2 Summons in debt, issued 4th March, 1857, against plaintiff in error, in favor of defendant in error, plaintiff in the Court below, for $372,55,—damages $100, returnable to March Term, A. D. 1857, of said Court. Returned, "not served."

3 On the 21st day of May, 1857, another summons issued from said Court against plaintiff, and in favor of defendant, returnable to August Term of said Court; returned "served," on the 25th day of May, 1857. On the 25th of August, 1857, motion was made by plaintiff in error, on affidavit, for a bond for cost, which motion was denied.

4 At the August Term, A. D. 1857, plaintiff in error pleaded in abatement that the plaintiff in the Court below and defendant in error, who sued as S. S. Farrington, was called and known by the name of Samuel S. Farrington, instead of S. S. Farrington; to which, the defendant in error replied, that he was as well known by the name of S. S. Farrington as by the name of Samuel S. Farrington;—whereupon, the plaintiff in error filed a demurrer to said replication, which was overruled by the Court.

6 Plaintiff in error, at same Term of Court, then filed a plea setting up that, as to the sum of $300—parcel of the sum above demanded—he had paid and satisfied the same by bill of Exchange, which was received by the defendant in full satisfaction of the sum of $300,—which plea the defendant traversed in his replication. Defendant in error then asked for judgment by default, which was entered for $72,50—part not answered by plea. Plaintiff in error then moved for a discontinuance of the suit, which motion was overruled.

7 A jury was empaneled, by order of the Court, who returned a verdict for the sum of $186,00, and costs, upon which the Court rendered judgment for $186,00, and costs.

The plaintiff brings the cause into this Court by writ of error, and seeks to reverse the judgment of the Circuit Court of Washington County: 1st. Because the Court overruled the motion to dismiss for want of cast bond. 2nd. Because the Court overruled the demurrer to replication to plaintiff's plea in abatement. 3rd. Because the Court rendered judgment by default for $72,55,—part of declaration unanswered. 4th. Because the Court overruled the motion to discontinue suit, after rendering judgment for the part unanswered, as aforesaid. 5th. Because the Court empaneled a jury to try said cause after the suit was discontinued in law, and rendered a judgment for $186, and costs, against plaintiff in error on the verdict of the jury. 6th. Because the judgment of the Court does not specify whether said judgment was rendered for debt or damages, or what portion of the claim of the defendant in error the said judgment was rendered for. 7th. Because there are two separate final judgments rendered against the plaintiff in error in one suit.

For these reasons, the plaintiff in error asks that the judgment of the Circuit Court of Washington County may be reversed.

NELSON & JOHNSON, for Plaintiff in Error.
