State of Illinois } Oct. Of the October Term 1861
Jackson County } of the Jackson Circuit Court

James F. Chenoweth the Plaintiff in this Suit Complains of the Illinois Central Rail Road the defendant in this Suit of a plea of Quasi de et armis For that Whereas before and at the time of the committing of the grievances as by the said defendants, ^{hereinafter mentioned} ~~these~~ they the said defendants were owners and proprietors of a certain Rail Road to wit the Illinois Central Rail Road for the Carriage and Conveyance of Passengers from Decatur Illinois to Cairo Illinois and from Chicago Illinois to Cairo Illinois for hire and reward to the said defendants in their behalf and the said defendants being such owners and proprietors of the said Illinois Central Rail Road as aforesaid, thereupon hitherfore to wit on the 1st day of January 1860 at the County of Washington and State of Illinois to wit at the County & State aforesaid at the instance and request of the said defendants was a passenger in the Cars of the said defendants to be safely securely & certainly conveyed from Decatur Illinois to Carbondale in said State for which conveyance the said Plaintiff paid to the said defendants the regular & usual fare on and along the line of said road for a certain fare & reward to the said defendants in that which said fare was then and there paid by said Plaintiff behalf to said defendants and the said defendants then and there received the said Plaintiff as a passenger in their said Cars running upon said road as aforesaid; and thereupon it then and there became and was the duty of the said defendants to safely and securely carry & convey the said Plaintiff from Decatur Illinois to Carbondale Illinois upon their said Rail Road as aforesaid and in their said Cars as aforesaid. But the said defendants not regarding their duty in that behalf did not safely and securely carry and convey the said Plaintiff in their Cars and upon the line of their said Rail Road from Decatur Illinois to Carbondale Illinois but on the contrary forcibly unlawfully maliciously & wilfully ejected thrust from and put off between Station of their said Cars so running upon said Road the said Plaintiff beating bruising and doing the said Plaintiff great damage by their said action in the premises and assaulting wounding the said Plaintiff by their action as aforesaid; and also by means of the premises the said Plaintiff became and was sick sore lame and disordered and so continued for a long space of time to wit hitherto during all which said time the said Plaintiff suffered and underwent great pain and was hindered and prevented from transacting and attending to his necessary affairs by him during all that time to be performed and transacted and lost and was deprived of divers great gains and profits and advantages which he might and otherwise would have derived and acquired, and thereby also the said Plaintiff was forced and obliged to and did then and there pay lay out, and expend divers large Sums of Money amounting in the whole to the Sum of $ 5000.00 in and about the endeavoring to be cured of the said Fractures, Bruises, & Injuries so received as aforesaid; And also thereby the said Plaintiff was hindered and prevented from continuing his said Journey and was kept and detained at the County of Washington and State aforesaid to wit at the County of Jackson and State of Illinois for a long Space of time to wit the Space of ten Days, and during that time then incurred great expenses in the whole amounting to a large Sum of Money to wit the Sum of $ 5000.00 in and about his necessary Support and Maintenance to wit at the County and State aforesaid, Whereby the Action hath accrued to the said Plaintiff to have and maintain of and from the said Defendants the said Sum of $ 5000.00 and therein due,

James F. Chenowith.

This was an action of Trespass VI ET ARMIS, brought by Defendant in Error, against Plaintiffs in Error, in the Jackson Circuit Court, to the May term, 1861.

Summons was issued returnable to the first Tuesday in May, 1861, against Plaintiffs in Error, the Illinois Central Railroad Company.

On the back of said summons, was the following endorsement, to wit :

“ I return the within, executed by reading to William S. Mason, this 26th April, 1861, and leaving a true copy of the within with William S. Mason.”

“ WM. COX, Sheriff.
by J. W. Sanders Depty.”

At the May Term, 1861, there were no proceedings in the case.

At the October Term, 1861, Plaintiff below filed his Declaration in Trespass VI ET ARMIS ; and there being no appearance by Defendants below, judgment by default, was rendered for $1250.
